

*Albuquerque Public Schools
Risk Management Department*

Compressed Gas Safety

Employee Quiz

Name: _____ Location: _____

Employee Number: _____ Date: _____

---

Read each question and select the correct answer by circling “True” or “False”

1. If the regulator to an oxygen cylinder is difficult to thread, you should oil the threads.

True

False

2. If you find a compressed gas cylinder without a label, you should mark the contents “unknown” and return immediately to the supplier.

True

False

3. It is safe to conduct minor repairs on the valves of cylinders containing “harmless” gases.

True

False

4. Cylinders may safely be secured by chains.

True

False

5. When equipment is left unattended or not operating, cylinder valves should always be left open.

True

False

6. Oxygen cylinders should never be stored on its side.

True

False

7. Cylinders containing flammable gases shall not be stored near sources of flame.

True

False

8. Cylinders should never be rolled or dragged.

True

False

Once finished, give this quiz to your supervisor so it can be sent to Risk Management.