

*Albuquerque Public Schools
Risk Management Department*

Ladder Safety Program

Employee Quiz

Name: _____ Location: _____

Employee Number: _____ Date: _____

Read each question and select the correct answer by circling "True" or "False"

1. Step stools, straight or extension ladders and step or "A" frame ladders are three types of ladders.

True

False

2. IAA - 375 lbs. - Commercial General heavy-duty applications is the heaviest ladder rating.

True

False

3. When setting-up a ladder there is no need to make sure the feet are placed on a stable surface.

True

False

4. A straight ladder should be positioned at a 4 to 1 ratio (base of ladder should be 1' away from the vertical surface for every 4 feet of the ladder's length to support you)

True

False

5. Extend straight or extension ladders 3 rungs above the roof surface.
True
False
6. Unsafe ladders do not need to be removed from service.
True
False
7. Tie off ladders against the building if working above 12 feet
True
False
8. Barricade off area below your ladder so pedestrians don't walk into or under your ladder while you are on it.
True
False
9. Always face the ladder when climbing
True
False
10. Take the time to move a ladder instead of "over-reaching" your position.
True
False

Once finished, give this quiz to your supervisor so it can be sent to Risk Management.