

*Albuquerque Public Schools
Risk Management Department*

Bloodborne Pathogens Quiz

Name: _____ Location: _____

Employee Number: _____ Date: _____

Read each question and select the correct answer by circling “True” or “False”

1. If a covered employee initially declines the Hepatitis B series but later changes his mind, he can still receive it at a later date.

True

False
2. A pathogen is defined as an organism, either bacteria or virus, that can cause an illness or disease.

True

False
3. Hepatitis B, Hepatitis C and HIV are the three pathogens of particular concern in the Bloodborne Pathogens standard.

True

False
4. Transmission of pathogens may be either by direct or indirect means.

True

False
5. Pathogens can enter and infect the human body through openings in the skin including cuts, nicks, abrasions, dermatitis, or acne

True

False

6. You only need to practice precautions with people you know are carriers of bloodborne pathogens

True

False

7. Handwashing is the single most important means of preventing the spread of infection

True

False

8. Disposable gloves may be washed or disinfected for re-use.

True

False

9. Sharp objects may be disposed of in the trash, as long as the needle is bent or broken first.

True

False

10. Any employee who believes they have been exposed to Bloodborne Pathogens must call Company Nurse at 1-877-740-5017 and submit a Notice of Accident form to their supervisor.

True

False

Once finished, give this quiz to your supervisor so it can be sent to Risk Management.