Belief

All children can learn.

Vision

APS partners with families and communities to support the growth and good health of each and every student so that all students can learn.

Mission

APS continues to increase student achievement through standards-based learning environments supported by a system of continuous improvement.

I am APS.

Strategic Direction

• The Albuquerque Public Schools are an Uncommon Achievement in a Standards-based Approach
• Quality and Safety Learning and Working Environments
• Effective and Efficient Systems

Goals

• All APS schools will meet or exceed adequate yearly progress.
• All students will meet or exceed proficiency standards on the state and national tests.
• All students, staff, and families consider all schools to be safe and high quality.
• All students, employees, and families report 100% satisfaction with instructional and administrative processes.
• All levels of the APS organization will meet or exceed accreditation standards and proficiency measures.

Did you know...

• APS students continue to score above the national and state averages on the ACT and the SAT exams.
• Thirty-four Albuquerque Public Schools seniors were named National Merit Scholarship semi-finalists in 2006-07. Eighteen were named National Merit Scholarship finalists in 2007.
• According to last year’s Quality of Education Survey, 82 percent of APS parents believe that their child is safe at school.
