Characters

Protagonist: The character whose goal or motive is the reason for the story.

Antagonist: The character or thing that keeps the protagonist from reaching his or her goal.

“Co”-tagonist (from Digby Wolfe, UNM Theatre Department): The character or characters who help the protagonist reach his or her goal.

Created by
Erin K. Hulse, Drama Resource Teacher
APS ARTS Center/Fine Arts
Character Profile

Your name: ___________________________ Date: ________________

Give the information for your character with as much detail as you can so we can get to know him/her very, very well.

Name: ____________________________________________

Age: ____________________________________________

Traits: ____________________________________________

________________________________________________

Home: ____________________________________________

________________________________________________

Family: ____________________________________________

________________________________________________

Wish/Goal/Motive: ________________________________

________________________________________________

Fear: ____________________________________________

________________________________________________

Hope for the world: ______________________________

________________________________________________

Created by
Erin K. Hulse, Drama Resource Teacher
APS ARTS Center/Fine Arts
Character Profile

Your name: __________________ Date: _______________

Character’s Name: _____________________________

Age: _________________________________________

Appearance: _________________________________

Home: _______________________________________

Family: ______________________________________

Wish: ________________________________________

Fear: ________________________________________

Created by
Erin K. Hulse, Drama Resource Teacher
APS ARTS Center/Fine Arts