School Bond Election

On November 4, 2025, voters will decide whether to approve a $350 million bond for Albuquerque Public Schools. If passed, this bond would provide funding for school construction, renovations, and improvements across the district, which serves students in Bernalillo and Sandoval counties.

When will the Election be held?

November, 4, 2025, as part of the regular local election. Early voting is from October 7 to November 1.

Who can vote?

All registered voters living within the Albuquerque Public Schools district are eligible to vote in the November 4, 2025, School Bond Election. This includes all of the city of Albuquerque, the county of Bernalillo, and the Village of Corrales in Sandoval County.

Ballot Language:

Question – Authorization to issue up to $350,000,000 of general obligation bonds (School Bonds)

"Shall the Board of Education of the Albuquerque Municipal School District No. 12, Counties of Bernalillo and Sandoval, New Mexico, be authorized to issue up to $350,000,000 of general obligation bonds for the purpose of erecting, remodeling, equipping and furnishing school buildings; purchasing or improving school grounds; purchasing computer software and hardware for student use in public schools; providing matching funds for capital outlay projects funded pursuant to the Public School Capital Outlay Act; or any combination of these purposes?"

FOR the school district general obligation bonds ❑

AGAINST the school district general obligation bonds ❑

What this bond would pay for:

The $350 million bond would fund projects that directly impact students and schools across the district, including:

- Building new classroom blocks at 14 schools
- Installing school security and safety equipment, upgrades, and hardware
- Upgrading cooling systems, including adding refrigerated air at 20 schools
- Constructing a Career and Technical Education training facility for students
- Building a special needs facility on the West Side
- Replacing outdated classroom roofs and artificial turf
- Renewing and replacing student and teacher classroom furniture and equipment

How passage of the bond will impact the community:

The 2025 School Bond Election will have a major impact on our community. Approval of the $350 million bond would:

- Give teachers and students modern facilities and equipment to support strong academic outcomes
- Ensure safe, equitable, and appropriate school facilities across the district
- Maintain current levels of taxation for property owners
- Maintain schools and protect taxpayer investments in community assets
- Enhance safety and security at all APS schools
- Support local jobs and provide an economic boost through construction projects
- Keep property tax rates at their current level

For details on school construction, capital, and maintenance updates, visit: aps.edu/capital-master-plan/2025-capital-election or scan the QR code.

VOTE

Better Schools BUILD Better Communities!

November 4th, 2025 - School Bond Election

Scan the QR code for:
Bernalillo County Clerk Voting Information
berncoclerk.gov/elections/early-voting